High on History: Coin and Stamp Expo

An exquisite exhibition of coins, stamps, matchboxes and ancient artifacts, Coin and Stamp expo stayed true to its promise of transporting us back to the days when we would collect coins and stamps, and carefully stick them in our scrap books, so that they stayed with us forever. The collections ended up being appreciated by a large number of people and took no time to become a center of attraction for the In-novision 16 attendees during November 4 – 6, 2016.
