About the Event

The workshop will help participants gain insight into the types of academic publications available, the processes involved in getting their work published, and the expectations that editors have from authors and their work. Participants will gain an in-depth knowledge of how to pitch & position their papers and identify niche publications best suited to meet their needs.

Topics

- Structuring your manuscript to impress SCI journal editors
- Selecting a journal and preparing a great submission package
- Responding to reviewer comments

Speaker

Yateendra Joshi

Academic Publication Trainer

Yateendra has been working as a scientist for a decade with the Indian council of Agricultural Research. He has worked with TERI and currently divides his time between working for WISE (World Institute of Sustainable Energy) and Editage, training, copy-editing, and teaching. He has taught at TERI University, NCL, IISER and also is a member of the committee of experts constituted by IGNOU. An accredited editor with Diplomate status certified by the Board of Editors in Life Sciences, Yateendra has participated in several international conferences of EASE, the European Association of Science Editors: Oxford, Helsinki, Tours (France), and Tallinn (Estonia). He is a Member of the Editing Office, Atomium Culture, Brussels, and a Member of the Editorial Board, Information Design Journal. His book, titled 'Communicating in Style', was favorably reviewed in a dozen international periodicals.
