TRANSFRER OF COPYRIGHT FOR ARCHIVAL OF THE THESIS/DISSERTATION

Reference: FORM NO.NITR/IP/4

I hereby declare that

1. The electronic version of the thesis submitted herewith on CD-ROM is in the PDF format.
2. My thesis is my original work and its copyright vests in me; it doesn't infringe or violate the rights of anyone else.
3. The contents of the electronics version of my thesis submitted herewith are the same as that submitted as the final hardcopy of the thesis.
4. I agree to abide by the terms and conditions of the Institute Policy on Intellectual Property, hereafter known as the "Policy", as approved by the competent authority of the Institute.
5. I agree to allow the Institute to make available the full text of my thesis (in hardcopy as well as electronics form) globally.
6. I grant to the Institute a non-exclusive license for non-commercials and academic use. All usage under this clause will be governed by the relevant fair-use provision in the Policy and by the Indian Copyright Act in force at the time of submission of thesis.
7. I agree to allow the Institute to place the electronic version of my thesis on internet (maintained by Institute) for its academic community as well as global academic/research community.
8. I agree to allow the institute to upload the electronic version of my thesis on a public access website of the Internet maintained by the Institute.
9. The staff(s) of the institute (Central Library/Others) will archive the thesis at Institute Repository/ Archival System on behalf of me. I am the sole responsible for the all metadata and content of the thesis.
10. In keeping with the said Policy of the Institute, I agree to assign to the Institute (or its Designees), all my rights in inventions, discoveries and patents, and/or similar property rights derived from my thesis according to the following categories:
    a. With the use of Institute-supported resources as defined by the Policy and revisions thereof.
    b. With the support, in part or whole, of a sponsored project or programme.
11. In case I consider my thesis to contain patentable intellectual property, I agree to notify the Institute to that effect. If, however, the institute does not wish to file a patent based on my thesis, no part of my thesis may be disclosed by the Institute to any person(s) without my written authorization for one year after the date of submission of the thesis or the period necessary for sealing the patent, whichever is earlier.
